Latest updates:

- Victoria has recorded 77 new coronavirus cases, along with its biggest single-day increase in community transmission since the start of the outbreak. A total of 332 infections statewide cannot be traced to a known source, 31 more than yesterday.
- NSW Premier has said she is considering road check points and extra screening at Sydney Airport to keep Melburnians from hotspot areas out of her state.
- 8 new coronavirus cases have been recorded in NSW, all of them returned travellers in hotel quarantine.
- NT has recorded its first coronavirus case for almost three months. With a Darwin man who recently returned from Melbourne testing positive for COVID-19.
